01 INTRODUCTION

UNIVERSITY OF ECONOMICS HO CHI MINH CITY (UEH)

Established in 1976, UEH was the first public university to implement an autonomous system to provide our students with a nourishing academic and research environment to compete in the global economy.

We cooperate with other universities and organizations to stay on top of trends in education, training, and research in order to be ahead and connected with enterprises and society.

“ A multidisciplinary university with reputable academic influence within Asia and sustainable development.

Professor Nguyen Dong Phong
UEH Council Chairman

THE INSTITUTE OF BUSINESS RESEARCH (IBR)

Our main objectives are to implement academic research and promote international publications. We are also proud to host several international conferences. Since our establishment, the institute is widely known for the numerous works published in many prestigious journals and the successful conferences held annually.

We also offer various academic programs in partnership with other reputable foreign universities (Degree Programs and Executive Education). We provide consulting services, executive education, and in-house training programs to many companies and authorities in Vietnam, especially executive short courses combined with foreign study tours.

Vo Xuan Vinh (Professor of Finance, PhD)
Dean, Institute of Business Research

“

By 2030, IBR strives to become one of the region's leading academic institutions in economics and business.

02

OUR MISSION & VISION

Our Vision

IBR aims to become one of the top research institutions with academic prestige in Asia and be Vietnam's leading organization providing training for students and consultancy for organizations and businesses by 2030.

Our Mission

Here at IBR, we see ourselves as a pushing force towards contribution to the community. We support Vietnamese scholars with international publication through globalized academic research and apply those findings to solving real-world problems in Vietnam. We also strive to positively impact Vietnamese society through training activities and strategic consultation for organizations and businesses.

03

RESEARCH

Research is the main objective of our institute. We conduct both academic research for international publications and applied research.

IBR is housing several research grants at the Government, National, Ministry, and Provincial levels. We also partner with many universities and top foreign professors to conduct inter-government research projects or jointly apply for international research grants.

IBR maintains a strong publication record with several papers/articles published in leading international economics, business, and finance journals.

Some of our key research strengths

We have established a strong relationship with our international and local partners to promote our research, academics and consultancy services.

We have developed a strong research network, including several institutional partners and leading academics.

We have established ourselves as an important partner for international or inter-government research projects.

Publication

Our staff have edited several special issues for reputable journals. We edit the Book Series Vietnam and the Global Economy, published by the World Scientific Singapore, covering various economic and business studies topics.
